Emmanuel Sanders, of the Denver Broncos and Jeff Storey, CEO of Level 3 Communications, Inspired The Crowd At Heroes of A Precious Child Luncheons

(Broomfield and Denver Metro, CO) Local nonprofit, A Precious Child, celebrated another year of successful Heroes of A Precious Child luncheons this fall bringing together over 800 community members, elected officials, and business leaders raising more than $178,000, and welcoming 39 new members to the organization's Leave A Footprint monthly giving society. The first luncheon took place on Tuesday, October 4, 2016 at the Omni Interlocken Resort in Broomfield, Colorado where Emmanuel Sanders, A Precious Child Celebrity Ambassador and wide receiver of the Denver Broncos, was the keynote speaker and received A Precious Child's Heroes award. The second luncheon took place on Wednesday, October 19, 2016 at the Westin Denver Downtown in Denver, Colorado where Jeff Storey, CEO of Level 3 Communications was the keynote speaker and Jeff and Shelley Storey were presented with A Precious Child's Heroes award.

Emmanuel Sanders and Jeff Storey shared their passion for the work A Precious Child does in the community and the importance of giving back. Families served by the organization shared inspirational stories of triumph and hope. All proceeds from the Heroes of A Precious Child luncheons will benefit the nonprofit and aid in providing basic essentials, such as clothing, shoes, backpacks, school supplies, and toiletries to disadvantaged and displaced children in Colorado.

CEO and Founder Carina Martin stated, "A Precious Child is so fortunate to have so many generous individuals in the community that truly support our mission to provide children in need with opportunities and resources to empower them to achieve their full potential."
